Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary.

Let me start by extended my greatest appreciation for those of you that support my family and the ministry here in Fayetteville, Nc. There are those that give financially that make it possible for us to do the work that God has called us to do. There are those of you that give of their time with notes, letters, texts, phone calls and emails with short words of encouragement and Love. You will never know what it means to me and my family to feel the warmth and support from these gestures of love. With that being said, my family is doing great. Jenna is working diligently at her job at the school and God is placing several opportunities daily to share the gospel and minister to her coworkers and families.

Emmitt is growing like a weed. He will be 2 ½ on the first of December and it seems like yesterday we were overjoyed to spread the news of his arrival. I look forward to seeing most of you next year at the national meeting so he can meet the people that we pray for.

As for the Church, we are holding our own and faring well throughout the pandemic. We continue see military families move on to their next duty stations, but God has been faithful in sending visiting families weekly who are interested in the Gospel and First Heritage. During the Month of October, we had a high of 33 for Sunday Worship, but we did have one Sunday with 10 people. It was a down Sunday, but we had a great service and wonderful fellowship after.

We are still only having in person worship on Sundays with Zoom on Wednesdays. Currently we have 6 families that join us for Wednesday Night Bible study online. We were planning to go back in person for Sunday School and Wednesday, but our Governor has restricted meetings again in our state, so we are going to continue with Sunday being our only in person service until further notice.

I think that’s all of the news for now, If you have any questions or just would like to chat, please do not hesitate to call or text.

I appreciate you taking time to read this report, and until we know officially who our president is,
I’m Mike Jones and I approve this Message.
