Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary.

Even with all of 2020’s many downs and challenges that seemed to put a halt to any and all ministries, we look back and see God remained faithful.

Through the worst pandemic in our lifetime, with uncertainty and sickness, God has kept our families safe. Our church is still moving forward with a mission to minister to our community.

When we weren’t able to meet in person, we were pushed to move to online services. Although we don’t have as many views of our livestream now as we did in the spring, we are seeing new people visit our website. We are even receiving emails asking for information about the church.

Due to not being able to meet in person, we switched to online giving. When many businesses and individuals have struggled financially, God has blessed us with an increase of offerings. To God be the glory!

We haven’t been able to conduct “business as usual” with ministry or services, but we do have a core group of people dedicated to accomplishing the task of propagating the gospel message.

We have seen several of our long-time visitors remain very faithful during this time of uncertainty.

We ask for your continued prayer for the salvation and/or commitment of those that continue to attend.

Many of you are also aware of how transient our congregation is because of the military. We had to say goodbye to a core family a few months ago, but we are proud to say they have found a church to serve in at their new home in Germany.

We look forward to 2021, not because we believe that flipping the page on the calendar is going to miraculously fix everything. A new year opens new doors and sets up new opportunities to carry out our mission—Preach the gospel and disciple believers.

We thank you for your continued prayer and support.

Pastor Mike
