Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary.

Church: I think we can all agree with the song lyrics that say “Mama said there’ll be days like this, there’ll be days like this mama said...” But I’m thankful that even though mama said there would be some “bad days” that the Bible says in Philippians 1:6 “Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.”

In Fayetteville we still have a lot of COVID restrictions, and we still had a curfew until the end of February. But the Holy spirit continued to remind me that a virus doesn’t stop the Church from being the Church. And the mandate to “GO” doesn’t have a “COVID clause”

God did bless through the month and we had some first-time visitors and some visitors from previous months who have been faithful in attendance.

Throughout the month we averaged 20 in attendance with 6-10 worshipping with us online. We are still in the process of updating our audio/video equipment along with our internet to give viewers a better experience. Our efforts in this are not to give reasons for people not to attend in person, or an excuse to miss church, but as an outreach tool to boost our presence to our community. Currently of the 20-30 people that watch our online worship, there aren’t any that are from our community. And we are looking to change that. Not only are we investing into our online presence, but we are also going to attempt to do some neighborhood evangelism and community out reaches now that some of the COVID restrictions are loosening. We are praying that even though there may be days like mama said, that we can look to Jesus who is the author and finisher of our faith who not only began a good work in us 6 years ago, but also will perform until his day. Gods not done with us yet!!! (Say AMEN!!!!)

We ask that you continue to pray for our school system. There are a lot of uncertainties of going back to in-person instruction for the students. There is also a lot of tension between those who want the children to be back and those that want to maintain the virtual instruction. We are praying that through this divide that decisions will be made that will benefit the children, and that possibly even through this division that we can find ways to minister to our community in their time of need.

I appreciate you taking time to read this report and we thank you for your continued prayers and support.

MIKE JONES
