Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary.

Church: The month of March was an encouraging month for the church and for me personally. God has answered several prayers and is opening doors that have been shut for over a year now.

I have been thinking about a song that Jenna sings by Karen Peck and New River called four days late. In the Chorus of the Song it says “But His way is God’s way, not yours or mine, and isn’t it great, when He’s four days late He’s still on time.”

We have been praying for ministry opportunities in our community and God is working it out where we will be able to participate in several outreaches, one of which will be the Independence Day Festival where I will have the honor of leading out in the pledge and having prayer for our country.

I am also setting a goal for our church to knock on at least 100 doors a week with tracts and information for the church. Even though in Fayetteville it is frowned upon, and the church could possibly be fined, I feel the Gospel message is too important to sit idly by why people are dying and going to hell. So pray for safety and for us to have compassion as we carry the gospel message.

We also have two young soldiers that want to be baptized and join the church along with a new family that wants to meet with me about how they can be serve.

And another praise is, one of our core families were having to PCS (move) with the husband’s new promotion, but thru prayer and Gods will, they are staying. We are excited that they will continue to work and serve alongside us as we grow.

Also, March has been encouraging to me personally. I had the privilege to be with Pastor John Mix and the great folks at First Baptist Church Kingstowne, VA for their “March for Missions.” It is very encouraging to know that we have a sister church so invested in the ministry in Fayetteville North Carolina. I spent time with Bro John and Sister Mix while there, they are great friends and true disciples of Christ. I am so thankful for them pouring into me and my ministry and always speaking life giving words. Needless to say, I returned excited and encouraged from that meeting and ready to continue the good work that God has started.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support, I appreciate you taking time to read this report.
