Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary.

Church: Let me start out with a heartfelt “Thank You”. There have been so many of you call, text or send cards of prayer, either individually, from the church, or from your Sunday School Classes. They always seem to arrive just when me or the Church needs a “Pick-me-up” We are very grateful for the love and the support we receive from people nearly around the globe. So, on behalf of First Heritage Baptist Church and My family Thank You.

April was a great month for the church. I would love to say we had 100 saved and baptized and that we found land and a building, but you have to crawl before you can walk. I say it’s great because for the first time in a year I feel we are on track and doing ministry again. Even though our congregation is smaller than it was two years ago, We feel “whole”! We feel united and with this unity comes new found excitement and energy. Currently I have a church that is reading their Bibles daily in a challenge we started on the 1st of February to read through the Bible in a Year. Isaiah 55:11 says “So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.”

And with all other promises of the Lord, this one is reigning true. There is an excitement to learn and study the Word of the Lord from saved people. There is also a curiosity and excitement to learn from lost people, and this curiosity has lead me to several conversations of salvation and baptism. It has also started a weekly Bible study with two different lost families during the week.

I look forward to writing next month’s report to praise our Father for saving these families, if they choose to accept Him and follow him in baptism.

Please continue to pray for us as grow, that we would just “be” First Heritage and Let the Lord “Grow” First Heritage.

Family: Our Family is doing great. Staying busy like many of you. We are looking forward to the end of the school year and to summer. I am excited about Emmitt’s Birthday June 1st. We can’t believe that he will be 3, Time truly does fly when you are having fun. We thank God daily for our healthy, rambunctious little boy. We aren’t sure what life was like without him.

Thank you again for your love and Support. Looking forward to seeing some of you in June.
