Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary.

June: Summer is definitely in full swing. Travel plans are being made for several weeks of conferences, youth camps and attending/preaching at revivals.

June started off amazing. We had the opportunity to take Emmitt to Myrtle Beach for his 3rd Birthday and stayed for a few days. It was a much needed get-away to give our little boy all that he asked for and to have some rest prior to the upcoming travel plans.

Summer travel began with the National Meeting in West Virginia. Even though Jenna and Emmitt didn't come with me, it was a very enjoyable meeting. Not having one last year (2020) felt like I had not seen some of you in years and it was great to catch up. The thing I like about the meeting so much, is getting an opportunity to see some of you person and give you an update face to face. I was very grateful for the encouraging words and prayer from those of you I was able to see. There was a sweet spirit this year and we are already making plans for next year in Orlando.

At the end of June, I had the privilege to be the guest evangelist at Camp IGNITE at the Florida Baptist Encampment. God showed up and showed out like He usually does, and He saved at least seven young people. It was very encouraging to be invited to speak, and thankful to Jerry Riggs for the invite and the good conversation during the late nights.

Between the National Meeting in West Virginia and preaching at the Florida Camp the following week, I wasn't very present during the weeks at First Heritage. I would travel and be home on Saturday and leave after church on Sunday. But even in my absence God was doing a tremendous work. We had one young man and a family of three come forward to be Baptize and join the Church. I'll be honest it's been a while since we had to fill up the baptistry and it was discouraging. Especially since we usually average at least 1 a month. God is always faithful, and we ask that you help us pray for these that are ready to serve the Lord.

Attendance on Sunday worship has steadily increased. We are averaging and maintain around 27. The encouraging thing about our attendance increase is people coming back to church and return visitors. We are still looking at ministry opportunities to be present in our community, but it seems things are picking back up and for that I am very thankful.

That's all for June, looking forward to posting some baptism pictures next month, stay tuned and thanks for reading.
