Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary. August started off with a very encouraging Faith Promise Missions Conference at Benchmark Baptist Fellowship in Fredericksburg, VA. Pastor Alan Schoeff and the people were very welcoming and loving to me and my family. They had guest speaker Brant Lane that challenged our thinking, stretched our faith and encouraged our hearts. We look forward to hearing all that God will do through Benchmark and are grateful to have been a part of the services.

The prayer and support that we received came in at the right time, because on the 12th of August 3000 of our Fort Bragg soldiers answered the call and in a moment’s notice and were on a plane headed for Kabul. Out of those 3000 men and women, 8 were connected with First Heritage. With the rapid deployment, it left families without their husband/wife, dad/mom. So our church does what she does best. We jumped into action staying in constant contact with the families, providing food, support and most importantly prayer. When situations like this happen, I am reminded of why God has us here. To minister to those who at a moment’s notice are willing to give it all for the freedoms we enjoy in these United States.

With our soldiers away and the Delta Variant of Covid19 ramping up in our area, attendance in service has been down. We have seen large fluctuations in numbers throughout the month. One Sunday we had 35 and the following Sunday we had 15. We are praying that our soldiers will all return back home safely bringing stability back to their families. We are also praying for those that are still dealing with Covid and those who have lost loved ones due to it.

I ask that you join us in prayer for growth and stability in the church. We are prayerfully considering relocating the Church in the hopes of gaining the stability to build a congregation that can continue to minister to the military families. This still just a prayer matter so please prayer for God’s leadership.

Thanks for taking time to read this months report, if you ever have questions or just want to call, feel free at any time.

Until next time,
From: Your neighborhood North Carolina missionary.
