Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary.

Alabama: September started off with some more travel. Ron Ballard Pastor of Skyline Missionary Baptist Church invited us to be a part of their Missions Conference. I was very excited to attend for several reasons. 1st was that Skyline was the first missions conference I was invited to participate in after I answered the call to plant a church in Fayetteville, Nc. So, to be able to return 7 years later and give them a personal “thank you” while giving them an update and vision for what’s next in Fayetteville NC, felt great. Secondly, having Jenna and Emmitt able to experience the love of Skyline was a feeling unmatched. It’s one thing for me to be loved on and prayed over, but for my family to be involved was heartwarming. I am extremely thankful for the folks at Skyline for their continued pray and support over these last 7 years and look forward to the day that we can be a blessing to as many missionaries as they are.

Georgia: After returning home on cloud 9 from participating in Skyline’s Mission conference, Brother Mike Maxwell, Pastor of Hillcrest Baptist Church asked me to come and be a part of their Missions Revival. Brother Mike and the people of Hillcrest have always been involved in our lives. Brother Mike knew Jenna before I did, and has known me before I surrendered to preach. So, to attend a service at Hillcrest was almost like going home. They have always been a church to emulate, and the missions revival was no different. Their heart and passion to see the world evangelized and to help send missionaries to propagate the gospel is nearly unmatched.

Fayetteville: We are so thankful for the opportunities to share our heart for Fayetteville, NC. One of the greatest things that we were able to do at the two conferences, was to be able to be open and honest about ministry. Brother Ron and Mike didn’t want to just hear that everything is perfect and fine, they wanted to hear the struggles of the ministry and how they could pray specifically for those things. So, after 2 great weeks with 2 tremendous pastors and loving churches, Me and Jenna returned to the field knowing that even though we may be lonely, we are not alone.

Until next time,

From: Your neighborhood North Carolina missionary.
