Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary.

Church: October seemed to be a different month than the previous nine. There were several times during the month where it seemed that satan was winning the battle. We had the lowest attendance we have had all year in our morning worship and Wednesday night Bible studies. Two of the Bible studies I was trying to start in homes were cancelled. We lost several more potential church members to military moves. And the door we were attempting to walk through to acquire land and a building, was closed. But even though things didn't go the way we would have liked them, doesn't mean that God was absent or not involved every step of the way.

I have had more 1 on 1 “salvation talks” in October than I have all year with 1 accepting the Lord on Halloween. God is still at work.

We also have a family that moved away, moving back to Fayetteville. This family has remained faithful in every way possible being 800 miles away. They are excited to come home and “get to work.”

As a Church we are trying to get back to the basics. We are focusing on solidifying our core group and teaching those basic fundamentals of discipleship. The group that I have is dedicated and faithful to the spread of the gospel and the growth of First Heritage.

The fields are truly ripe and the labors are few but if God is for us no one can be against us.

My plan for the rest of the year is to plan for 2022. I want us to start 2022 off with a bang. We have several ideas for out of the box ministries and evangelism opportunities that we pray will allow us to do what we are here to do.

I would be lying if I didn't say ministry has been difficult, but with people like all of you praying and sending support, it is exactly what we need to continue to minister in Fayetteville.

The Jones Family Loves all of you and are glad we can serve the Lord in Fayetteville, NC.
