Teen suicides

It is with a sad heart I write of 1 teen suicide and 1 attempted suicide in the past month in our town of Mead. The 1st was the girlfriend of my son's friend. She was well liked at the school and in the community and showed zero signs of depression or suicidal tendencies. It was a total shock to learn of her death. The other is the friend of my daughter's we have asked prayer for in the past. Sadly, this is her 3rd attempt. She went through 6 successful months at a therapy center in Florida and all was seemingly good with her. What makes this particularly hard is that Her mother is a teacher at the high school and the student who took her life was one of her students. Through being a coach at the school, I have had access to several of the teachers and have talked and prayed with several of them through this extremely dark period. Please pray for the community as a whole, the parents of these two young ladies and that my daughter's friend can get the true help she needs, both mentally and spiritually. I have become very good friends with her dad through all this and continue meeting with him.

Preparing teens for the future

Over the past few weeks, my focus on teaching has been to understand and adopt a Biblical worldview. I have had conversations with the teens attending church about what ways they feel prepared for life after graduation and what are some areas they feel unprepared for. They have all said they feel somewhat prepared for social issues they will be facing, but definitely would like to know more about what the Bible says. They also overwhelmingly said they would like to know more about how to handle their finances and understand money. Sadly, over half of them do not have a bank account and no idea how to manage one if they did. I have mentioned to them I would like to sign up for the Dave Ramsey "Financial Peace University." I am now trying to plan on how we can begin the study. I would like to use this as a tool to invite not only the kids but their parents and any of their school friends. I am currently looking for a facility that we may could rent that would have room for roughly 25-40 people. (with no luck so far.) We could do it in our home but the max we could accommodate would be 15-20 people. Considering we have 5 teens who are seniors this year and will be graduating soon, this needs to become a reality sooner rather than later.
