Pastor: Chet Johnson

Greetings from North Carolina and your neighborhood Missionary.
Thank you for taking time to read this short report on God’s blessings and work in Fayetteville North Carolina.

THE WORK: February has been a slow month in the ministry, but I continue to have the words of my pastor resonate in my head. “You don’t plant a seed and stand over the hole with a baseball mitt waiting for the fruits to explode from the ground.” I am reminded as we are still solidifying our core group that there is a period where growth is happening that isn’t visible from the outside. As a pastor and leader, it’s difficult to be back at the basics again, but it is so encouraging to see the rapid growth and unity that is happening amongst our group. Attendance is still holding in the teens on Sunday and Bible study on Wednesday, so I praise his name for there to be more than just me and my family.

As a praise, we have 2 new families that have been attending throughout the month and have been asking questions on what becoming a church member looks like. So please pray that these conversations would lead to convictions and conversions.

Special Prayer: As most of you know we are still on the hunt for First Heritages forever home. The store front has served its purpose and we are ready to put down roots. We believe that this will be what reaches the “locals” in Fayetteville. So if you would pray with us that God would reveal that location in His timing and that we would be patient waiting for he guidance.

The Family: Jenna is still a rock star and the best help mate in the world. She is doing amazing at her new Job at the new school. Emmitt is getting big; he reminds us daily that his birthday is June 1st and explains in great detail what we are going to do for him now that he will be 4.

And for me, I am doing great. Getting back into a routine and finding ways to be involved in our community again. I am Helping once a month as a Range Officer at the Gun Club I am a member. In just one class I cannot tell you the number of conversations I had with people that were amazed that I was a pastor that enjoyed guns and shot competitively. Which leads to conversations about My God and my testimony and of course my Jesus.

Thank you all for your prayer in support, if you have any questions about the work or just want talk, feel free to call or text anytime.

Until Next time I am Mike Jones and I approve of this message!!!
